Year / classes involved	Selected Students from Yr 8 and Yr 9
Location	Belmont High School
Purpose	Young people across Australia are experiencing an increasing number of challenges that impact their wellbeing. Based in high schools, Raise Youth Mentoring Program provides young people with a caring, independent volunteer mentor who shows up each week, just for them. With time to listen, one-to-one support with a mentor gives young people a voice, empowering them to cope better, today and in the future. "We'd like to extend the opportunity for your child to participate in the Raise Youth Mentoring program. We've selected your child to offer this opportunity as we think that having an independent mentor could support them expand and reach their potential. Mentoring runs at the same time every week at school for 20 weeks, we will support your child to ensure they maintain their schoolwork. Raise mentors are trained and supported by qualified program coordinators and provide all youth safe checks before they are able to meet with any students. Places are limited, please complete the consent form via this link to secure your child's spot." https://raise.org.au/parent-consent-form?pcid=a469o00000008C1&amp;accid=0019o000003F8Th More information about our mentoring program is available to share with families here (for languages other than English, please visit raise.org.au/schools-parents/how-it-works), or we are can work with you to organise a parent and carer information session which I can host at the school.
